USPA NEWS - Marine Le Pen, Extreme Droite candidate, of the National Front has been at the top of the voting intentions list for several weeks. With her 27%, with a strong electoral base (80%) according to the surveys of Elabe Institute and all latest polls included.

Marine Le Pen, Extreme Droite candidate, of the National Front has been at the top of the voting intentions list for several weeks. With her 27%, with a strong electoral base (80%) according to the surveys of Elabe Institute and all latest polls included. The voters of Marine Le Pen are very strongly loyal to the Front National and thus constitute the strongest electoral base that is rooted in a class vote indifferent to "the affairs"-----

-----MARINE LE PEN IS SURELY TO WIN 28 % OF THE 1ST VOTE ACCORDING TO THE SURVEYS AND POLLS

Whatever the poll, the president of the National Front mostly confirms its first position in terms of voting intentions for the next presidential election. The latest polls by the Elabe Institute from 28 February to 2 March, ranked Marine Le Pen first with 27% of voters and 25% who declared their intention to vote in favour of Emmanuel Macron, followed by 19% for François Fillon, 12.5% Jean-Luc Melenchon and 12.5% Benoît Hamon. For more than a year, polls have followed one another and are similar in terms of the prominent position occupied by the president of the FN. It only confirms the first electoral place occupied by the National Front in all the intermediate elections since June 2014: 24.8% of the votes cast in the European elections ... The French presidential campaign 2017, has been disturbed so far, by the revelations of the PenelopeGate affair, of supposedly fictitious jobs of parliamentary attachés for certain candidates (François Fillon and Marine Le Pen) as well as the investigations on the declaration of assets of candidate, Emmanuel Macron. This has caused a lot of waves and shakes, preventing the candidates' programs from being clearly expressed and confronted actually.

Now, the campaign is finally launched and the big TV debate, will take place today at 20h local time Paris, on the TV channel TF1, facing the 5 "Great candidates with the highest voting intentions. It is therefore, Marine Le Pen, Emmanuel Macron, François Fillon, Benoît Hamon and Jean Luc Melenchon. The candidates will finally be able to confront each other and defend their program in front of the viewers.
