THE STATE MUST TAKE ITS RESPONSIBILITIES OVER THE ATTACK OF A MOSK IN BAYONNE

"Attack in Bayonne: the state must take its responsibilities!" Stated Mjid Guerrab in this tribune as published just after the Mosk of Bayonne to be attacked by an Old Frenchman, 85 years old, retiree form the Military Force, and former member of Rassemblement National (French Far Right of Marine Le Pen). The Party said they have kicked off the member Claude Sinke, who happened to be very "racist" and show "Verbal Violence" against the muslims. "Indeed, three days ago, in Bayonne two men were seriously wounded by gunfire while on their way to the mosque. The 85-year-old gunman, a former candidate of the Front National in the departmental elections of the canton of Seignanx, was trying to burn the door of this place of worship. The situation is critical, Islamophobia is unleashed in France and Islamophobic statements continue to proliferate on social networks. Yesterday it is Eric Zemmour, sentenced for the second time for incitement to racial hatred last September, who was invited to react on the acts of Bayonne on the channel Cnews at a prime time." declared Mjid Guerrab, MP, LREM-----On May 9, 2019, M'jid El Guerrab, deputy representative of the French Maghreb and West Africa, questioned Christopher CASTANER, Minister of the Interior, to know if we could fear an anti-Muslim attack in France on the model of the Christchurch bombing in New Zealand. The Minister confirmed at the time that this fear was justified and that three attacks of this type had been foiled by the State services in the last 2 years. Yesterday, what was predictable happened and two people were close to death because of their religion. Faced with the reality of this threat, it is up to the State to take all necessary measures to ensure that such an act does not happen again and to protect our compatriots of Muslim faith.
